ONE MAN DYING WHILE POLICE SEEK ASSAILANT

Daisytown Shooting Takes Place Wednesday Night Late

QUARREL OVER WOMAN

Trouble Said to Have Originated From Usual Cause—Wounded Man at Hospital

John Kukula, of Daisytown, is in the Mercy hospital at Pittsburg, in a dying condition with a bullet wound through his left lung just above the heart. Oscar Pathaoho, who is said to have fired the bullet from a 38-calibre revolver Wednesday night about 11 o'clock, is still at large.

Kukula and Pathaoho are said to have had a quarrel Wednesday evening over a woman. The shooting was the result of the quarrel. The men are both Finlanders and were employed as machine men by the Vesta Coal company at mine No. 4.

Kukula was taken to the Mercy hospital early this morning by Dr. J. Wilson of Daisytown. The injured man is 38 years of age and is single. There is said to be a chance for his recovery.

Pathaoho is described as being 28 lowing the shooting and is still in hiding. J. R. Channing, the Vesta Coal company policeman is searching the down river towns today in hopes of getting some trace of him. He visited Charleroi early this morning.

Pathaoho is desrbed as beng 28 years of age, weighing about 175 pounds and being 5 feet 8 inches in height. He is slightly stoop shouldered and has a red face.

High Schools to Play Here

Charleroi and Donora to Meet in Hot Battle on Saturday Afternoon

What promises to be a hot football battle will be that the coming Saturday afternoon of the Donora high school and the Charleroi high school on the Charleroi field. It will be the first home game for the Charleroi lads since the Union high school of Fayette county played here three or four weeks ago.

Donora will come with a strong lineup. Charleroi will present its regular eleven with the possible exception of Speers and Lowstuter. Both these players will be held out of the scrimmage. H. Carson will probably be placed at fullback, with Stahlman and Hickey on the halves. The last named duo are showing good form. For the ends, Coach Grimm has R. Carson, Piersol and Goldsmit.

CAMPAIGN FROM NOW TO BE HOT

Much Interest Being Shown in Affairs of Coming Election

CANDIDATES WORKING

From this time forth until next Tuesday, which is the date of the general election, political affairs will be warm. All parties having candidates in the field—and that includes an even dozen—are hard at work with the sentiment leaning admittedly toward the Republican ticket.

Locally there has been little show of excitement. However hard work has been done here, Republican leaders have been doing their work quietly, but they have been doing it thoroughly so that only the most favorable results are anticipated. The visit of Roosevelt Tuesday and the coming visit of Secretary of Labor W. B. Wilson tonight of course will have some influence. Yet it is believed their presence among voters of this neighborhood will only tend to strengthen the Republican candidates.

EDITORIAL

The following editorial is one of the best arguments we have seen why the local people should vote the straight Republican ticket. This valley is very much affected by the prosperity or idleness of the Pittsburg Steel plants at Monessen at this time, when so many men are idle. The lesson is thoroughly taught to the man who labors, that the man who employs him cannot give him work and certainly cannot give him good wages if there is no profit in the operation of his plant.

A BROKEN PLEDGE.

"Let the thousands of employes of Cambria Steel at Johnstown and the thousands of employes of Pittsburg Steel at Monessen take note of recent action by their companies. Pittsburg Steel several weeks ago suspended its dividends because for the year ended June 30, 1914 (before the war), eight months of which was under the Democratic tariff, its net earnings were but $550,000. This is less than one-half what they were the previous year, under a Republican protective tariff, when the amount was $1,140,743, and the falling off is due to the lowest prices in 15 years. The Cambria company recently declared a scrip dividend, due in two years, and reported to stockholders that for eight months ended September 30, six of which antedated the war and all under the Democratic tariff, the earnings were the smallest in the history of the company. Wherefore the logical thing for these companies' employes to do is to turn in for restored prosperity by voting the Republican ticket. Unless the employer prospers the employe cannot. Woodrow Wilson's promise of doubled and trebled prosperity through tariff revision has not been kept. —Gazette Times.

ACQUAINTED 50 YEARS WITH DR. BRUMBAUGH; KNOWS HIS WORTH

Progressive Voter of Charleroi Tells of Association With Gubernatorial Candidate in Battles For Temperance

SAYS HE IS TRUSTWORTHY MAN TO SUPPORT

Because he knows Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh, and knows his work and ideals, John K. Brumbaugh of Charleroi, a cousin, who is one of the staunchest Progressive voters in Western Pennsylvania will next Tuesday forsake his party to the extent of voting for Dr. Brumbaugh. He has written the following open letter to the Charleroi Mail:

"I have known Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh almost 50 years. He was my boyhood friend and my teacher in the public schools and in college. I have lived in his home and know his home life I know his habits of life to be o the very best. I never knew him to even taste any form of intoxicant, and am sure any change against his character is false. I knew him to be an advocate of temperance as a school boy, teacher, professor, minister and college president.

"No one in his home county has ever done any more than he has done to put his home county dry. Dr. M. G. Brumbaugh was secretary of the organization in Huntingdon county for an election to be held June 18, 1889 at which time the people of the state voted on an amendment to the constitution prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicants in Pennsylvania. Huntingdon county voted dry by more than 700. Huntingdon county owes very much to Dr. Brumbaugh and Hon. J. R. Simpson, who has always been a strong advocate of temperance. J. R. Simpson was president of the county organization when Dr. Brumbaugh was secretary. At this time Dr. Brumbaugh was county superintendent of schools. During this temperance fight he made speeches in favor of prohibition all over the county and furnished most of the temperance articles to our county papers.

"Dr. Brumbaugh was one of the very first local optionists in Pennsylvania. I am sure the state of Pennsylvania does not have a more sincere advocate of local option on National prohibition than Dr. Brumbaugh. With him in the governor's chair the state will soon be rid of its worst enemy, rum.

"As a minister of the German Baptist church, which has the purest form of Democracy in its management he could be nothing but an advocate

Secretary of Labor Advises Vote for Candidates of His Party

GIVES HIS REASONS

Accomplishments Have Been Wrought, he Claims—Pays Compliments

Secretary of Labor William B. Wilson of the present Democratic cabinet spoke to a good-sized crowd at the corner of Fifth street and Fallowfield avenue Wednesday in exposition of the reasons why voters should cast Democratic ballots. It was his fourth speech of the day, he having previously spoken at Washington, Brownsville and Fayette City.

Secretary Wilson spoke first of having visited Charleroi before, and then branched out into a discussion of Pennsylvania legislation. He made an attack on Senator W. E. Crow of Fayette county, alleging that it was Crow's machinery which had killed the workmen's compensation act and other goods acts in Pennsylvania.

The first candidate mentioned was Vance McCormick, who is fighting for election as governor. Secretary Wilson denied that McCormick was opposed to union labor.

Much credit was given Democracy for getting an eight-hour day of labor in governmental departments and industrial peace. Secretary Wilson charged the Republican party with failure to obtain justice for all on industrial problems. He said on the subject of tariff that he didn't blame the special interests for getting all the protection they could but he blamed the wage earner for not getting any protection.

He said the European war in effect did the same thing for this country that a protective tariff would do and said "grape-juice diplomacy of the United States was vastly superior to grape-shot policy in Europe." He paid President Wilson high compliments and boosted the candidacy of all persons on the Democratic ticket from A. Mitchell Palmer for U. S. Senator down to the legislative candidates, the names of whom, however, he did not mention.

Secretary Wilson was applauded at times. After the meeting an informal reception was held for him at Democratic headquarters. He departed late in the evening for Pittsburg, intending today to go to Maryland.

Secretary Wilson was accompanied here by County Chairman Joseph W. Martin of Washington and Secretary L. T. Knode. J. W. Stewart, candidate for state senator on the Democratic and Washington party tickets, Cornelius Carson and John T. Post candidates on the Democratic ticket for assembly were her.

The Eagles of Bentleyville will hold a masquerade dance at the Eagles hall Friday, October 30. $1.00 per couple, extra ladies 25 cents. Prizes for best and most comical costumes. Peerless orchestra. Dancing from 8:30 until 2 o'clock. General public invited. 98-t3

A DEMOCRAT MONUMENT

"The "war" tax of one hundred millions of dollars in a time of peace in the United States represents the result of nineteen months of Democratic administration. The tax measure, with which the session of the Democratic congress made its final bow to the public, will stand as a monument to the incapacity of the party in power. The war is not the cause of this new burden upon the people; it is the excuse, says the Philadelphia Press.

Taxes of this kind are a Democratic habit, the result of the rule of a party that cannot provide for the expenses of the Government in a normal way. In the Cleveland administration bonds were issued to meet the current expenses of the government in a time of peace. So, now, a new tax is imposed upon the country to meet the extravagant and unwise expenditures of this administration at a time when we are at peace with all the world. It is a record of which no party can be proud. It marks reaction instead of progress; it spells incapacity to govern.

The basic trouble came with the enactment of the tariff law, one framed by subservient tyros in legislation and adopted by secret party caucus. Long before war became imminent, this law had demonstrated the fallacy of the Democratic argument, that if we buy more goods of foreign nations, those nations will buy more of us. The result of the new tariff was that we have bought more and have sold less. Much that we have bought from the foreigner we could and should have produced at home. We have been the loser in our foreign commerce by at least one hundred and fifty millions of dollars since the Wilson-Underwood bill became a law.

The Wilson administration has donated to Canadian lumbermen two millions of dollars, which last year they contributed in duties to the support of the United States, and no consumer has paid one cent less for his lumber under free trade. It has given ten millions to the foreign raisers of sugar, and in two years, when all of the sugar tariff is removed, the gift will be increased several times that amount, but no one who buys sugar by the pound has derived any benefit from this generosity. At least twenty millions has been presented to the foreign woolgrower and wollen manufacturer, with no advantage to the American wearer of woolen clothes. The importers of cattle have been relieved from paying five millions toward the expenses of the government, but no consumer pays less for his meat. So it is all along the line.

Side by side with this reduction in our revenue, the Democratic administration entered upon the greatest orgy of expenditure of government money that the country has known since the nation began. For the last year of a Republican senate and house the appropriations made amounted to less than a billion of dollars. The appropriations of the session of congress just ended amounted to over a hundred million of dollars more than the amount voted by a Republican congress. Everywhere money has been spent extravagantly and never has the White House voice been raised against the practice.

Had the Republican tariff rates been let alone and had congress confined its expenditure to the amount voted by the last Republican congress, there would have been no need of a tax because of the European war. The revenues would have been sufficient to meet the legitimate expenses of the nation. It is not the war in Europe, it is the Democratic war on prosperity and Democratic extravagance that made the new tax necessary. Their revenue bill failed from the start and wild expenditure accentuated the shortage. That is the truth in regard to the new tax burden and one that Democracy must face.

ASK AID OF EMPLOYES.

One of the street railway companies in a large city has given instructions to its trainmen to refrain from discussion of the war. The very good reason stated by the management is that as this is a nation with many elements of foreign birth or descent in its citizenship, disputes may arise easily from casual remarks and the final result might be an outbreak of some nature, says an exchange.

The motive behind the order is the same that has led to the discouragement of public gatherings in a large city by adherents of one side or the other. If neutrality is to be preserved successfully the responsibility for this safe policy will lie not only in the executive officials of the government, but also in the rank and file of the population. Neutrality is easy to preserve under the present conditions, but it may be less easy if pressure should be directed against this country.

It is hard to restrain trainmen from expessing their feelings, but in observing the strict neutrality which should prevail, it is desirable that the dangers of the contrary course be appreciated. Street car men are in close contact with the public at all times and will be provoked or tempted to reply to sallies. Later, when bitterness succeeds the first sentiments of surprise and horror inspired by the war, it will be still harder to keep from talking.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

A young American poet, who several years a go forsook his native lands for the delights of literary London, enjoys the reputation of being the worst selling poet in the British Isles. To an English acquaintance he recently said:

"Of course, I know my books don't sell over here, but in the state they sell by the thousand."

Whereupon the acquaintance (a spiteful, evil-minded person) said to the young poet's publisher:

"I hear that you get a great many American orders for Mr. So-and-So's poems.

"Well," said the publisher, "now that you mention it, I did get an order from America for one of Mr. So-and So's books. But the man that ordered said he wanted a discount because he was the poet's father."

Reference at a recent banquet was made to the blind indulgence of the average mother with regard to her own child.

Some time ago a young married woman, accompanied by her 2-year-old boy, visited the home of her parents, and in just tw days the cute-some youngster was in full possession of everything around the house except the shotgun and the cayenne pepper box.

"Bessie dear," appealingly remarked the young married woman one afternoon, addressing her sister, "is your prayer-book down stairs?"

"Why, yes," answered Bessie, wonderingly. "What do you want it for?"

"I want to know if you won't let baby play with it for a while," was the startling rejoinder of the other. "He has just torn mamma's all to pieces."

PITT PREPARING FOR W. & J. GAME TWO WEEKS HENCE

With a hard game with Georgetown University off the slate and a comparatively easy contest scheduled with Dickinson college this Saturday, the University of Pittsburg football coaches are giving Capt. Smith's boys a much needed rest. All the cripples will be on deck for the W. & J. games with the possible exception of "Chalky" Williamson, the star quarterback, whose sensational playing in the Cornell and Navy games put him in line for All American team honors. Williamson received a bad bump in the Navy game and has not played since. The team physicians entertain a slight hope that he will be able to get in against W. & J. If not, he will be all right for State. Ordinarily, the absence of a star of this magnitude would put the Pitt varsity in a sadly weakened condition but this year the material is so plentiful that Coach Duff will not be seriously handicapped with Williamson out. No chances will be taken with permanently injuring the star quarter by playing him too early. He has two more years at Pitt.

Jimmy De Hart, Pete Heil, last year's general and Fred Ward give Pitt three good quarterbacks to direct the plays. De Hart, on account of his wonderful speed, seems to have the call on the other candidates.

Bob Peck is a fixture at center to start the game and will likely face Cruikshank, the crack W. & J. captain and center, in the championship battle. Shapira is a good understudy for Peck. Capt. Smith, Reese and Soppitt are the possibilities for tackle with chances in favor of the first two mentioned.

The tackle berths are uncertain. Jones, Sutherland, Hocksmith and Thornhill are available. Hocksmith seems sure of one tackle if he keeps up his present gait.

The end candidates are plentiful. Carlson, last year's Bellefonte Academy captain, and Herron, have been holding these positions down but both will have to work hard to keep Matson and Harrington from displacing them. Matson is a Shadyside Academy star and can be used at either tackle or end. Harrington is from Conway Hall and is a crack end. Injuries have kept him under cover thus far. He knows the game and has speed and nerve.

The make up of the varsity backfield for W. & J. has not been decided on. Duff has Miller, Hastings, DeHart, Morrow, Heil, Hanley, Collins, Ward and possiby Williamson for these positions. Miller, Hastings, DeHart and Collins have the edge in the fight for regular berths thus far although Hanley may displace Collins.

The largest crowd that ever attended a game in Pittsburg is expected for the W. & J. game. Last year with miserable weather 19,000 attended. This year, the figure will undoubtedly be raised to 25,000. Starting with the Dickinson game, the kick off will be at 2:30. The W. & J. and State games will start at this hour.

LONG RECORDS OF SERVICE

English Firm Has Fifty Workpeople Who Have Been in Their Employ More Than Fifty Years.

It is hard for Canadians, born and bred in a country where opportunity and incentive to change are almost ever present, to realize completely the conditions that obtain in older countries where employment is not so plentiful that a man can afford to leave a firm with which he has secured a position, remarks the Winnipeg Tribune. Some knowledge of the situation may be gained, however, from the facts contained in a letter sent to the London Mail by the manager of a famous biscuit firm. The letter dealing with the periods of employment of the various members of the staff says:

"We have on our books 50 workpeople who have each completed more than fifty years of continuous employment with us, as follows:

"One over 60 years, eight over 57 years, two over 55 years, 13 over 54 years, 15 over 51 years, two over 50 years. Total: 50.

"Of our clerical staff:

"One man has completed 56 years with us.

"One man has completed 54 years with us.

"One man has completed 53 years with us.

"Among our factory workpeople and our clerical staff combined we have exactly 1,000 men who have each completed at least 30 years' continuous service with us. They range from 30 to nearly 50 years of service."

JUST THE SAME KIND OF GIRL

Modern Maid, In All Essentials, Is a Worthy Copy of Her Mother and Grandmother.

Every now and again somebody asks, in print, this question: "What has become of the old-fashioned girl that helped her mother wash the dishes?" Probably the same question has been asked since the time of Noah and will be asked until the end.

Mary Lyon, when she provided for the establishment of Mount Holyoke college for girls, stipulated that all the household work in it should be done by the students. That rule was enforced rigidly up to a recent date, when the directors and faculty, feeling that the practice might have become outworn, made the domestic tasks of the institution optional for the undergraduates.

But when the girls of Mount Holyoke were requested to announce their wishes on the subject, 748 of the $00 elected to continue in the tasks of sweeping corridors, washing dishes, setting tables and making up beds.

There is no need to worry about the American girl, even if she does wear gowns the sight of which seems to preclude all idea of work on her part. She isn't saying much about it, but she is in all essentials the same kind of girl our mothers and grandmothers were.

How to Kill Flies.

To clear rooms of flies carbolic acid may be used as follows: Heat a shovel or any similar article and drop thereon twenty drops of carbolic acid. The vapor kills the flies.

A cheap and perfectly reliable fly poison, one which is not dangerous to human life, is bichromate of potash in solution. Dissolve one dram, which can be bought at any drug store, in two ounces of water, and add a little sugar. Put some of this solution in shallow dishes and distribute them about the house.

Sticky flypaper, traps and liquid poisons are among the things to use in killing flies, but the latest, cheapest and best is a solution of formalin or formaldehyde in water. A spoonful of this liquid put into a quarter of a pint of water and exposed in the room will be enough to kill all the flies.

To clear the room quickly where there are many flies, burn pyrethrum powder in the room. This stupefies the flies, when they may be swept up and buried.

If there are any flies in the dining-room of your hotel, restaurant or boarding house, complain to the proprietor that the premises are not clean.

Bobcat Pays for License.

James Frame, a six-foot mountaineer from London, thirty miles southeast of Eugene, brought to Eugene a bobcat pelt and a bride.

He exchanged the bobcat for a marriage license and exchanged the license for a wife. He returned with a wife to surprise his friends at London.

The bounty on bobcats is only $2, and the cost of the marriage license is $3, so Frame had to throw in $1 "to boot" to effect the exchange in the county clerk's office, but he will get the dollar back by filing a claim with the secretary of state for his special state bounty.—Eugene (Ore.) dispatch to Portland Oregonian.

Rest Rooms Out of Date.

"Have you a rest room in your establishment?" "We used to have them in the old days," said the manager of the department store, "but there has been no demand for such things for many months. We have turned all our rest rooms into tango parlors."

Filial Solicitude.

"Mr. Smith, are water wagons very high?"

"I don't know, Tommy. Why do you want to know?"

"'Cause my papa fell off one last night and got a black eye."

Two ways of getting along

Which wins?

Now and then, we hear people say that they can get along without a typewriter. Yes, we believe that. Only forty years ago everybody got along without one.

So they did, a little further back, without the steam engine and the railroad train. They got along without them because there were none.

Anyone today who thinks he can get along without the typewriter because he can do his writing with the pen, is like the man who thinks he doesn't need the railroad because he can walk. In your method of writing you may be "walking" today. If so, then remember that the railroad is built and—

CHURCHMEN FOR DR. BRUMBAUGH

Clergy and Laymen Endorse His Candidacy.

WILL REDEEM PLEDGES

Leaders of Thought All Over State Urge Republican Candidate's Election, as He Stands Right on Local Option.

Philadelphia, Oct. 28. — Ministers who are the leaders in their denominations and laymen who stand in the forefront of church work have signed a statement of their unwavering faith in Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh. They are one and all of the opinion that he will carry into the governorship the same high standard of morals that has characterized his entire life, and that he will conscientiously redeem every pledge he has made in this campaign. These men who have volunteered to sign this declaration will be recognized from end to end of this state as representative of the great body of churchmen of this commonwealth.

Not only is Dr. Brumbaugh one of the nation's foremost educators, but he is a minister of the gospel and has an international reputation as a Sunday school worker, having represented the United States at the great world conference held in Zurich, Switzerland, last year. The statement of confidence prepared by the churchmen is the most impressive document that has been issued in this campaign, and every signer is a man known for splendid achievement in the cause of temperance.

The full text of the statement which they have signed is as follows:

"Believing that the present campaign in our state of Pennsylvania is fraught with greater moral consequences to all our citizens than any other that has been held for many years, and fully realizing the many conflicting points of view held by men who are equally conscientious in their efforts to promote the cause of Local Option as the most urgent temperance measure now before our fellow citizens, we, the undersigned clergymen and laymen, representing many different religious beliefs and political parties, desire to make this brief statement:

"We sincerely deplore any action that may divide the real friends of temperance or cause any radical departure from the fundamental position of the Anti-Saloon League, which was designed to be 'unsectarian' and 'omni-partisan' in its character.

"The attempt to array the temperance forces of this state against Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh, the candidate for Governor on one of the three great party tickets now before the people, we regard not only as most unwise, but also grossly unjust. Dr. Brumbaugh, in his platform announcing his candidacy for Governor of Pennsylvania, under date of March 14, 1914, said:

"'I have no entangling alliances of any sort. I am under no promise, no agreement, made or implied. I shall never be a party to any such thing. If elected, it must be with the definite understanding that I shall be entirely free to perform my official duties solely and steadily for the people as a whole. I shall reverently and humbly endeavor to do my duty in harmony with my conscience and under the guidance of the Divine. The problem of the liquor traffic is a vital one facing the people and the legislature today. In harmony with many thoughtful persons, I submit that local option is a practical solution. Any legislative measure looking to an improvement of the conditions regulating this traffic will receive my approval.'

"Under date of March 27, 1914, in a letter addressed to Dr. E. J. Moore, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, he said:

"'I beg to acknowledge your letter of March 26, and to say that in harmony with the statement in my platform, I should feel it my duty to do what I honorably could to promote the passage in the next General Assembly of a county local option bill. I think I may safely add that my whole life would give you complete understanding of my attitude on the question submitted to me.'

"In order to make it impossible for any honest man to question his real attitude, Dr. Brumbaugh has recently declared in an address widely circulated:

"'The great corporations, employing thousands of our toilers, are increasingly insisting that their employes shall live soberly and economically. They have added to the moral the economic argument for such regulation of the liquor traffic as will secure the highest efficiency of our workers. For that reason, and because of its moral meaning, I have declared for local option in the matter of the sale of intoxicating liquors. Furthermore, I will use every honorable means at my disposal to secure the enactment of such a law, in order that the people may, in the several counties of the commonwealth, determine for themselves whether or not licenses shall be granted for the sale of intoxicating liquors.

"'I wish particularly to state that I stand absolutely square and resolute and unchanged in the position I have taken in this matter, and I invite the sympathy and support of all fair-minded people. No candidate who is honest can do more and no candidate who is sincere can offer from his own record a better guarantee to the people of this commonwealth of his honest intention and determination to further this important measure. In this I am confident of the support of all fair-minded citizens.'

"In view of the above clear and emphatic expressions of Dr. Brumbaugh concerning his attitude toward the temperance cause, and knowing the personal characteristics of the man, which make his personal word better than any political platform that could be framed, we believe that the temperance voters of Pennsylvania, in voting for Dr. Brumbaugh, will be placing in the executive chamber at Harrisburg a man who will be a perfect Gibraltar of strength, not alone to the great local option movement, but to every other moral reform as well.

"We desire to emphasize the fact that seems to have been partially lost sight of, that with both of the candidates of the two great parties out spoken in favor of the local option measure, the really vital problem before the voters this fall is to elect a Legislature—irrespective of party—who shall be pledged to enact a local option measure, so that our next Governor may be able to sign such a measure."

IN STERLING LIVES A GIRL

Who Suffered As Many Girls Do—Tells How She Found Relief.

Sterling, Conn.—"I am a girl of 22 years and I used to faint away every month and was very weak. I was also bothered a lot with female weakness. I read your little book 'Wisdom for Women,' and I saw how others had been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and decided to try it, and it has made me feel like a new girl and I am now relieved of all these troubles. I hope all young girls will get relief as I have. I never felt better in my life."—Miss BERTHA A. PELOQUIN, Box 116, Sterling, Conn.

Massena, N. Y.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I highly recommend it. If anyone wants to write to me I will gladly tell her about my case. I was certainly in a bad condition as my blood was all turning to water. I had pimples on my face and a bad color, and for five years I had been troubled with suppression. The doctors called it 'Anemia and Exhaustion,' and said I was all run down, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought me out all right."—Miss LAVISA MYRES, Box 74, Massena, N. Y.

Young Girls, Heed This Advice.

Girls who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, headache, dragging-down sensations, fainting spells or indigestion, should immediately seek restoration to health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

WAR BULLETINS

London, Oct. 29—The limit of human endurance has been reached in the battle in West Flanders. The fighting is almost at a complete stop The artillery fire has ceased. The men have been fighting without sleep or rest for ten days over ground which at best is a morass. The German coast attack failed. The bombardment that the troops and artillery had to undergo from the British and French waships was largely responsible for the failure of the attack. It is believed that another attempt will be made to reach Dunkirk by an attack farther inland.

Berlin, Oct. 29.—The fighting near Nieuport and Dixmude is continuing. The Belgians have been reinforced. Sixteen British warships joined in the attack on the German right wing. Their bombardment was without success. Near Ypser the situation is unchanged. West of Lille the Germans attacks have been successful. Some of the French trenches in the Argonne woods have been taken and their defenders captured.

Manchaster, Mass., Oct. 29.—A dispatch to the Austro-Hungarian ambassy says that 8,000 prisoners have been captured near Ivangorod, and 17 machine guns taken. One Russian colonel and 200 men surrendered near Jaroslau. The Russians were repulsed at Zalucze. The Austrians captured two guns and a lot of ammunition in eastern Bosnia. In Servia, the Austrians captured four machine guns, 600 rifles and numerous prisoners. A counter attack made by the Servians failed. The situation in the middle of Galicia remains unchanged. Heavy fighting is going on southwest of Ivangorod, where one of the Austrian army corps captured 10,000 prisoners.

Hongkong, Oct. 29.—The legislative council of Hongkong passed an ordinance, to go into effect at once, compelling all enemies of Great Britian residing within the colony to bring their business to a close and depart. The government will appoint liquidators. There are as many German firms doing business in Hongkong as there are English.

ATTORNEYS ASK THAT TAYLOR BE PUT ON TRIAL

Probability of a reopening of the case against Jacob Taylor, charged with the murder of little Florence Dove in North Braddock, is forecasted in a petition filed by attorneys at Pittsburg asking the court to set aside the finding of the special jury empaneled to determine the mental condition of Taylor. This move by the youth's counsel Wednesday came as a surprise.

The special jury after hearing the testimony of alienists returned a verdict which classed Taylor as an imbecile unable to comprehend his situation and mentally unfit to prepare a defense with his counsel. It was believed the finding would act against a trial of Taylor on the murder charge at least for the present and that the next move would be his assignment to an institution for the insane.

After praying the court to set aside the finding of the special jury the petition assigns the following reasons for such a course:

"First—That the court erred in failing to make any inquiry and investigation for the purpose of determining whether there existed in the mind of said court such a doubt as to the sanity of said defendant as would justify the framing of an issue to try the question of defendant's insanity.

"Second—That the testimony of the defendant upon the stand disclosed so clearly his knowledge of the nature of the proceedings instituted against him and his ability to make a rational defense thereto, as to wholly overcome the expressed opinion of the experts to the contrary, and therefore the finding of the jury was against the weight of the testimony.

"Third—That the court in its charge to the jury gave undue weight and prominence to the testimony of the experts and failed to give to the testimony of the defendant the importnce to which it was entitled."

Taylor is in jail. Efforts to place him in an asylum for the criminal insane, it has been believed, would meet the opposition of his counsel and family until guilt of the crime charged against him was established. His disposition as an insane murderer, unless he improved sufficiently to stand trial would result in his confinement, possibly for life.

According to the district attorney's office, Taylor confessed.
